Community Action Poverty Simulation

presented by Mr. Charles Smith of USCAA

CAPS (Community Action Poverty Simulation) is a walk in another person's shoes. It's about shared experiences and making connections. During the simulation, participants role play living life as a low-income family dealing with unemployment, disability, financial hardship, and other difficulties associated with life below the poverty line. The focus is sensitizing people of the needs and struggles of those within the grasp of poverty.

Afternoon Workshop

3 CEUs

GLBTQ Inclusion in Schools

presented by Dr. Curtis Proctor and Santiago Vasquez

Dr. Proctor and Mr. Vasquez will present on the topic of gay and lesbian identity development and the needs of the gay, lesbian, bisexual, trans and questioning (GLBTQ) youth population across grade levels. Utilizing this information, Mr. Vasquez and Dr. Proctor will instruct participants in methods to meet the needs of the GLBTQ youth population in order to keep them safe and successful in the school environment.
